

MAHARASHTRA NATIONAL LAW UNIVERSITY, AURANGABAD

About the University

Realizing the importance of quality legal education and need of well-trained law graduates to the Bar, Bench and various professions the State of Maharashtra took a very bold decision by creating three National Law Universities in the State of Maharashtra at Mumbai, Nagpur and Aurangabad. Further all the three are independent and autonomous institutions created under the Maharashtra National Law University Act, 2014. The latest one added to the list of National Law Universities in India is the Maharashtra National Law University, Aurangabad, which commenced from March 16, 2017. The commencement of the University has fulfilled the aspirations of the people of the Marathwada region for an institution of national importance in Aurangabad. The law university made a beginning with admissions from the Academic Year 2017-18.

Prof. Dr. S. Surya Prakash, an eminent scholar took the charge of Vice-Chancellor, Maharashtra National Law University, Aurangabad on 16th March, 2017. Earlier, he was working in National Law Institute University, Bhopal.

He was the Founder- Chairperson, Centre for Business and Commercial Law and the Faculty in-charge, ADR Cell of NLIU, Bhopal. He was also founder editor of Indian Law Review. His areas of interest include Jurisprudence, ADR, International commercial Arbitration labour laws, Business Laws, and Health Law.

Academic Programme:

The University made a modest beginning by offering B.A.L.L.B. (Hons.) course from the academic year 2017-18.

UNDER-GRADUATE PROGRAMME

B.A.L.L.B. (Hons.) Five- Year Integrated Degree Course Academic Curriculum of the University is inspired by the University Grants Commission (UGC) Curriculum Development Committee Report (CDCR) wherein the recommendations of the CDC report and the Bar Council of India (BCI) guidelines have been considered as the basic parameters to bring it in consonance with trends of globalization, pluralism and social integration. Clinical legal education is an integral component of the academic curriculum of the university through which students understand how to appreciate practical socio-economic and legal issues and help the needy. The course curriculum promotes inter-disciplinary approach integrating law, social sciences and humanities.

The University follows semester system with six working days in a week, a minimum of 90 working days in a semester; and 180 days in an academic year in addition to examinations. The University introduced Choice- Based Credit Based System (CBCS) for undergraduate degree course. The students are required to earn a total of 200 credit points spread out through the course of five years; however the students shall be allowed to earn more credits from the courses offered by the external experts from time to time. Further, course structure is designed to impart 42 (forty two) compulsory papers, 02 (two) clinical papers and 06 (six) optional papers. A wide range of optional papers would also be offered to the students.
